The first thing Keep Learning Idaho course registration requires after pressing Checkout is to sign in with an account. You can create one on that screen if you don't have an account. Continue to the next step...

NEXT STEP — SIGN IN

If this is the first time you have registered for a course on Keep Learning Idaho, you can login with your Uldaho account. Or, if you don't have an account, click Create One! to sign in with your personal email address (e.g., Gmail, Microsoft, etc.)

A CODE will be sent to your email to allow you to sign in and continue the course registration process.

Note: University of Idaho and Microsoft accounts still use your password instead of a code.

The screenshot displays the University of Idaho sign-in interface. At the top left is the University of Idaho logo. Below it, the text "Sign in" is prominently displayed. Underneath, there is an email input field with the placeholder text "someone@example.com". To the right of the input field is a blue "Next" button. Below the input field, there are two links: "No account? Create one!" (highlighted in yellow with a red arrow pointing to it) and "Can't access your account?". At the bottom of the page, there is a section titled "Sign-in options" with a key icon.

The next step will depend on if the course requires a pre-requisite check or not...

NEXT STEP — PRE-REQ CHECK

If your selected course DOES NOT have a PRE-REQ, skip to the Next Step

If your selected course DOES have a PRE-REQ... Within the “Attention” alert, click the “here” link to upload your Prerequisite Proof.

Initial to acknowledge the following – "Many Independent Study in Idaho courses require a proctor for course exams. A proctor is a person who supervises you when you take a test, much like an instructor would if you were taking the test in a traditional classroom setting. If your course requires a proctor, you will receive an email with detailed instructions for setting up a proctor. If your course requires a proctor, you are responsible for finding an acceptable proctor during the first week of the course." *
